The Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen

" I ask you to pray to the Lord that He will bless me."

Pope Francis I

"What I have seen in parishes, schools and institutions has left me impressed with the past and hopeful about the future. I'm happy to be here, happy to be your archbishop. As a native of the Midwest, I am very much at home. Our local churches are blessed with a long history, deep roots in the Catholic faith, excellent schools, good economical and interfaith relations and the loyalty and commitment of clergy, religious and laity. Like churches around the world, we face great challenges but we also have great resources. Our greatest treasure of all is the teaching of Christ. I pledge my energies toward helping our Catholic children and adults to know it better for it is the source of all peace and joy in all forms of life. I ask all Catholics of the Archdiocese, clergy, religious, and laity for your continued and even increased participation in the work of the church. You know it is not just the work of the priest; it is not just the work of the archbishop; it is the work of all of us that accomplishes any good. Of course we all need God's help. So please pray for me. Please pray for one another. And know that I am praying for you."

Archbishop Dennis Schnurr

Once upon a time a group of Germans came to our country. Early on their faith was tested; 300 died of cholera. Many considered our faith community dying. Our future dead. Dead in the waters of the canal. Through God's grace we were raised. We in turn raised the walls of our beautiful church which is the Mother Church of our local area.

As beautiful as our church building is, our local church is much more than a building. It is flesh and precious blood. We are God's people. We are a body of believers. We are the faith community of St. Augustine and St. Joseph Cluster.

Our parish pictorial directory tells us who we are. It enables us to keep up with our ever-changing parish family. It helps us match names with faces. Next to the Bible, it is the resource to which I most frequently refer. It records the growth of our students. It is a tremendous tool for fostering greater unity in our faith community.

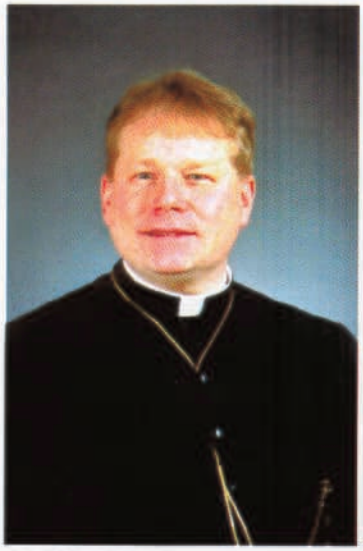

Special thanks to Linda Kitzmiller and her vibrant volunteers. Their creative efforts brought this 2014 pictorial directory to completion. Thanks also to those who chose to be included in our family album. I am blessed to be your pastor. May God continue to direct and protect us, to guard and guide us in the days and decades to come.

HISTORY

The history of a parish should be more than the simple telling of administrative events or the story of brick and mortar. It is the story of God & people living out their faith. It must tell of their struggles and failures, of their vitality, and of the fruit they bear. Saint John Chrysostom said if you desire to know the nature of a peoples' faith, then go into their church and observe the art. A measure of the fruitfulness of this parish is hopefully evident in the beauty of its church.

1832-1835

In 1832 Franz Joseph Stallo of Damme, Oldenburg purchased land and established the settlement called Stallostown. Father Friedrich Rese celebrated the first Mass here. Bishop Purcell of Cincinnati visited Stallostown in 1834 and established the Stallostown Mission. In 1835 a log church, 60 feet long, 40 feet wide, 16 logs high, with seating for 330 persons, was built in the North Park of the village. The parish territory covered a vast area, from which other parishes were later formed. Saint Augustine thus became the "Mother Church" of the region.

1845-1849

In 1845 Missionaries of the Precious Blood (C.PP.S.), under the direction of Father Franz Salesius Brunner, came to Saint Augustine Parish and have since continuously served the parish. Sisters of the Precious Blood soon followed and filled teaching positions in the local schools from 1848 to 1988 (except for the Cholera year of 1849). Land for a new church was purchased in 1837. It was not until 1848 that the brick edifice, in the neoclassical style, was built. The church was 120 feet long and 60 feet wide with an 160 foot tower on the east end. Its dedication was November 11, 1849, despite the fact that the Cholera Epidemic had taken the lives of over 300 parishioners during that summer.

1874-1939

The first renovation of the church was from 1874-1876 when [1] the original single tower was removed and parishioner Johann Anton Goehr built the inspiring Gothic twin towers. [2] The stately Gothic stained glass windows were installed in 1878. In 1896 a new Pilcher two manual pipe organ, with tracker action and hand pumper, was installed. It was rebuilt in 1939, incorporating an electro-pneumatic action, [3] along with additional ranks of pipes and a new console in 1897. The eight black-faced tower clocks with gilded numerals were purchased.

1900-1931

The second renovation of the church occurred in 1900-1901. The main entrance was changed from the east end to the tower end on Hanover Street. The sanctuary apse and sacristies were added on the east end, as well as installing new floor, pews, and heating system. It was during this renovation that the original flat ceiling became the distinctive half-barrel ceiling, [4] adorned with seven beautiful paintings, by the hand of Joseph Vittur, a copyist painter. Reconstruction of Hanover Street in 1922 made it necessary to build the magnificent front step approach. In 1929 the present crosses, constructed of heavy gauge copper and gold leaf, were placed on the steeples replacing the original wooden ones of 1876. Bishop Albers consecrated Saint Augustine Church in 1931. In accordance with the consecration rite, twelve crosses with candleholders, honoring the twelve apostles, were placed between the windows. The candles are lit on the feast day of Saint Augustine, and on October 25, which is the celebrated anniversary of consecration of any church entrusted to the care of the Precious Blood Fathers.

1954-1963

For nearly a decade, from 1954 to 1963, many extensive projects were undertaken. In an amazing structural feat, the roof load was redistributed on iron trusses with the means of an ingenious system of cables and turnbuckles. The repair and replacement projects included the tuckpointing of all brick and stonework, the repair of the roof with replacement of gutters and downspouts, the redesigning of the front step approach and the renewing of all sidewalks; the mending of the stained glass windows, the repair of the clocks and the bell ringing system, electrical rewiring on the interior and exterior with the addition of new ceiling lights, the installing of a new heating system, the incorporating of modern audio equipment, and the refurbishing of the organ with a new blower and rectifier and a screen placed before the pipes.

The crowning achievement of the entire renovation was the replacement of present church furnishings, all designed as matching pieces. [5] The center marble altar has been consecrated with the relics of St. Vitalis, St. Urban and St. Vincent. Side altars are consecrated with the relics of St. Emeritus and the Holy Christians. [6] A cross of Blue Belge marble with a corpus of Italian Botticino marble inlaid with the consecrated relic of St. Augustine was hung. The central mosaic is based upon a painting "The Blessed Trinity" by Albrecht Dürer, a 15th century painter. The mosaic panels of the side altars represent the aurora borealis, indicative of the Eternal Flame of Christ. [7] Statues of the Blessed Virgin and Saint Joseph, carved from Italian Botticino marble, were set before the reredoses of the side altars. [8] Stations of the Cross with marble framing and mosaic depictions came from Berlin, Germany in the 1950's at a cost of $1000 each. They were made during WWII and many were afraid that we might not receive them as the building they were manufactured in later became a part of the Berlin Wall. However, the stations were shipped as expected. [9] Four linden wood statues carved in Oberammergau, Germany were hung in pairs to accentuate the sanctuary. New pews, confessionals, and other fixtures of stained oak were also purchased. A marblette floor was poured in the church proper, along with the vestibules and the choir loft.

Glass doors, etched with apostolic figures, were hung at the church entrances in 1973. In 1978 new stained glass windows were installed in the side entrances. The windows of the north vestibule, in etched blue glass, depict the roots of our parish history. The windows of the south vestibule, using the theme "Life after Death", are dedicated to the memory of the deceased of the parish. [10] The armorial bearings of the Missionaries and the Sisters of the Precious Blood are also depicted in windows of the north vestibule. The slate roof was replaced in 1990. In 1996 a console piano and a Grand Steinway piano were gifted to Music Ministry. At that time, the towers were first illuminated from dusk to midnight.

The Conrad Schmitt Studios of Wisconsin repainted and redecorated the Church interior in 1997. In 2012 the electrical and heating systems were updated and air-conditioning was installed which was quite a feat. The undercroft was dug out and re-concreted creating a tunnel for HVAC ductwork and water lines. [11] In 2013 pews were removed to allow floor refinishing to be completed.

CEMETERY

2. Cholera Memorial

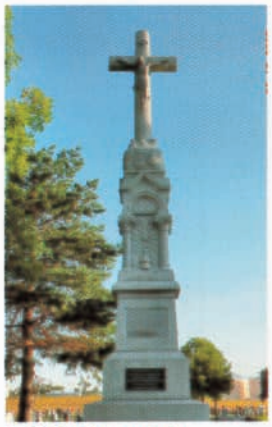

When the first pioneers of Stallostown died, they were buried alongside the building in which they lived. Necessitated by primitive conditions, this mode of burial was soon outdated and a permanent cemetery was established, a mark of a stable community. The first cemetery was established at the northeast corner of Fifth and Main Streets. This location would soon cease to be satisfactory due to the rapid growth of the community. A new cemetery site was chosen in 1836 outside the village's southern limit at the foot of Hanover Street. [1]A three-acre square parcel of land was purchased by St. Augustine Parish from John Bernard Feldmann.

This cemetery was one of the few Catholic places of burial in northwest Ohio in those early years. Deceased Catholics from a wide area surrounding Minster were buried there as well as the deceased of the parish.

A devastating cholera epidemic, sweeping the whole of the earth at the time, struck Stallostown in 1849. The bodies of the victims were buried in the cemetery in an unmarked mass grave consisting of several trenches. A monument to the memory of the cholera victims was erected in 1937. [2]The inscription of the memorial reads: In Pious Memory of All Our Cholera Victims, over 300, especially in the year 1849.

In 1855, John Henry Steinemann erected [3] the Steinemann Chapel with a chapel altar in thanksgiving for the recovery of his wife, Catherine Gertrude Meyer, from a serious illness. The building measures 12 feet in width and 18 feet in length, and is constructed of red brick made at the Steinemann brickyard. It is topped by a shingled wood steeple and copper cross. [4]An oil painting, Souls in Purgatory, brought from Germany in 1852, hangs behind the altar. The chapel was originally used by the priests as a shelter from inclement weather when they assisted at burials. A reliquary containing a number of relics was placed in the chapel in 1976. These relics are of the following: St. Peter and St. Paul, St. Bernard, St. Justin, St. Barbara, St. Cosmas and St.

Nine acres of land were purchased as an extension to the cemetery from Theodore and John Dickmann on February 21, 1884. This addition was consecrated on May l6, 1887 by Father Henry Drees, Provincial of the Society of the Precious Blood, as representative of Archbishop Henry Elder.

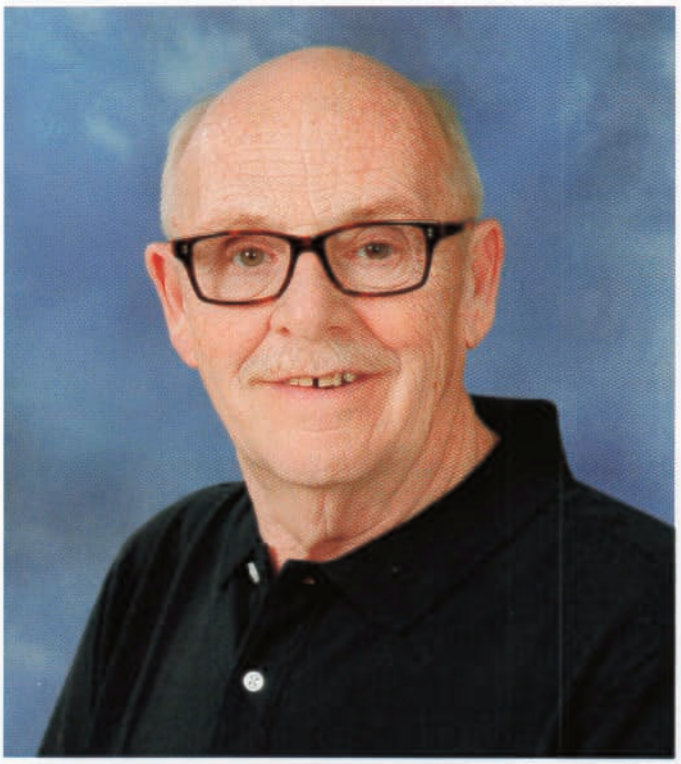

Father Christian Nigsch, pastor of St. Augustine at that time, erected an iron fence on the northern boundary of the cemetery facing First Street. [5]An imposing monument, in the center of the cemetery, featuring a crucifix, was dedicated in the spring of 1891, to the memory of former Pastor Father Andrew Kunkler, C.PP.S. The ground around the monument serves as the final resting place for priests.

In 1960, contemplating the future needs of the parish, Father William Meyer purchased a tract of twenty acres lying west of the oldest section from Clarence Walters. Five acres of this land was later sold to the Village of Minster for future expansion.

Deceased loved ones are remembered particularly on Memorial Day and All Souls' Day by the decoration of their graves with flowers or wreaths. [6]The Minster Area Firing Squad provides military rites at the funerals of veterans with a 21-gun salute and the playing of Taps. [7]A Cemetery Committee, consisting of seven elected members and serving under the direction of the Parish Council, was formed in May, 1976. The purpose of the committee is to assist the pastor and council in establishing policy and attending to the day to day operations of the cemetery. The Cemetery Committee formulated a set of regulations for the governing of the cemetery in 1979. The regulations were submitted to the Parish Council and adopted in January, 1980.

St. Augustine Parish Family

The community would like to extend a warm welcome to all new families, individuals, and new members moving to our parish.

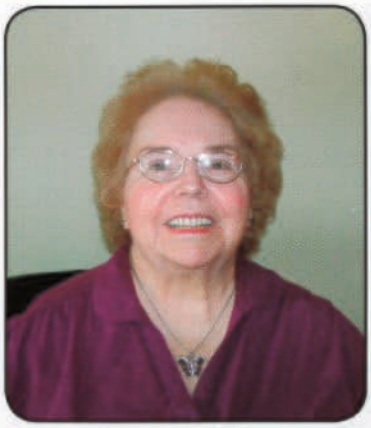

The mission of St. Augustine & St. Joseph cluster is to provide a spiritual environment and resources where people may gather to hear the Word proclaimed. St. Joseph Parish Family

The community would like to extend a warm welcome to all new families, individuals and new members moving to our parish.

The mission of St. Augustine & St. Joseph cluster is to provide a spiritual environment and resources where people may gather to hear the Word proclaimed. As a cluster, we celebrate the Eucharist, the Sacraments and provide the members of all ages the opportunity to grow in the practice of their faith, learning how to fully keep God's commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbors.
